- Information System Providers (such as Management Information Systems, Virtual Learning Environments and Third Party e-learning Applications, Catering Services Systems).

7. Transferring Data Internationally

- 7.1 A small number of data processors used by the Trust and its schools are based outside the UK and so their processing of your personal data will involve a transfer of data outside the UK. These processors are predominantly applications and information systems used by the schools to further pupil's learning. Some UK based processors may also use sub-processors (such as cloud service providers) which are located outside of the UK.
- 7.2 Whenever we transfer your personal data out of the UK, the Trust will ensure a similar degree of protection is afforded to it by ensuring at least one of the following safeguards is implemented:
- A) We will transfer your personal data to countries that have been deemed to provide an adequate level of protection for personal data by the European Commission or Secretary of State.
- B) Where we use certain service providers who are outside of the adequacy regime, we will use standard data protection clauses approved by the Secretary of State which give personal data the same protection it has in UK.

8. Our Legal Basis for Using This Data

- 8.1 We only collect and use your personal data when the law allows us to. Most commonly we process it where we need to:
- Fulfil a contractual obligation
 - Comply with a legal obligation
 - Carry out a task in the public interest
- 8.2 Less commonly we may also process your personal data in situations where:
- You have given us consent to use it in a certain way
 - We need to protect your vital interests (or someone else's interests)
 - To pursue a legitimate interest

8.3 Legitimate Interests

8.3.1 As a public authority, we cannot rely on legitimate interests for any processing that we perform in respect of our tasks as a public authority. However, due to the nature of our organisation there will be instances where we have other legitimate purposes outside the scope of our tasks as a public authority. In such instances we will consider legitimate interests where appropriate.

8.3.2 Where you have provided us with consent to use your data, you may withdraw this at any time. You can withdraw your consent in writing to the Headteacher.

8.3.3 Some of the reasons listed above for collecting your personal data overlap and there may be several grounds which justify our use of this data.

8.4 Of the lawful bases available to us, those the Trust is mostly likely to rely on in relation to staff data are the following:

8.4.1 Processing is necessary for us to carry out our obligations or exercise our (or your) rights under employment, social security and social protection law.

This would apply when, for example, we:

- Keep a record of reasonable adjustments for a disability to allow us to meet our obligations under the Equality Act
- Ensure that you are physically fit to work in a particular role
- Set up a voluntary salary deductions to a trade union

8.4.2 Processing is necessary for purposes of preventive or occupational medicine and to assess your working capacity as an employee.

- This would apply when we obtain advice from medical professionals for Occupational Health with regards to adjusting your working practices due to a health condition.

8.4.3 Processing is necessary to protect your life or someone else's.

- We will rely on this basis on rare occasions when we cannot reasonably get your consent for whatever reason.

8.4.4 Processing is necessary for statistical purposes where this is based on UK law, respects your right to data protection and where measures are taken to safeguard your rights and freedoms, such as through the collection of minimal data.

This includes compiling statistics for equal opportunity initiatives.

- Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims against the Trust.
- We have asked for and received your explicit consent to process your data for a specific purpose.

9. Collecting this Information

- 9.1 While the majority of information we collect about you is compulsory, there is some information that you can choose whether or not to provide to us.
- 9.2 Whenever we seek to collect information from you we make it clear whether providing it is compulsory or optional. If it is compulsory we will explain the possible consequences of not complying.
- 9.3 Much of this data we will have asked you to provide to us directly when you started your employment. Alternatively, we may have asked you for it during your employment, or you may have provided it to us independently in order for us to help you with something.
- 9.4 If we do not receive information directly from you, we might receive it from third parties, such as:
- HM Revenue and Customs (HMRC)
 - Pensions Scheme Providers
 - Disclosure and Barring Service
 - Occupational Health
 - Individuals or Organisations that you named as a referee

10. How We Store this Data

- 10.1 We create and maintain an electronic personal file for each staff member, and also store information on a HR Data system. The information contained in this file and on the HR Data system is kept secure with restricted access and is only use for purposes directly relevant to your employment.
- 10.2 Once your employment with us has ended we will retain this file for a further 6 years in accordance with the Trust's retention schedule.
- 10.3 The retention schedule is on the Trust's website.

11. Your Rights Regarding Personal Data

- 11.1 You may also have the right for your personal information to be transmitted electronically to another organisation in certain circumstances.
- 11.2 Your rights as a data subject:

- Individuals have a right to make a subject access request to gain access to personal information that the Trust holds about them
- The right to be informed: Individuals have the right to be informed about the collection and use of their personal data
- The right of access: Individuals have the right to access their personal data
- The right to rectification: Individuals have the right to have inaccurate personal data rectified, or completed if it is incomplete
- The right to erasure: Individuals have the right to have personal data erased (also known as the right to be forgotten)
- The right to restrict processing: Individuals have the right to request the restriction or suppression of their personal data in certain circumstances
- The right to data portability: This right allows individuals to move, copy or transfer personal data easily from one IT environment to another in a safe and secure way, without affecting its usability
- The right to object: individuals have the right to object to the processing of their personal data in certain circumstances and an absolute right to stop their data being used for direct marketing
- Rights in relation to automated decision making and profiling: Automated individual decision making (making a decision solely by automated means without any human involvement) and profiling (automated processing of personal data to evaluate certain things about an individual) are restricted

11.3 All of the above requests will be forwarded on should there be a third party involved in the processing of your data.

11.4 If you make a subject access request, and if we do hold information about you or your child, we will:

- Give you a description of it
- Tell you why we are holding and processing it, and how long it will be kept for
- Explain where we got it from, if not you or your child
- Tell you who it has been, or will be, shared with
- Give you a copy of the information in an intelligible form
- Individuals also have the right for their personal information to be transmitted electronically to another organisation in certain circumstances

11.5 We have a separate Subject Access Request policy, please refer to this for details on how to make a subject access request.

11.6 If you would like to make a request please contact our Data Protection Officer – Jo Hudson on 01226 282721 who will oversee the collation of this information by the school.

12. Other Rights

12.1 Under data protection law, individuals have certain rights regarding how their personal data is used and kept safe including the right to:

- Object to the use of personal data if it would cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- Prevent it being used to send direct marketing
- Object to decisions being taken by automated means (by a computer or machine rather than by a person)
- Have inaccurate personal data corrected, deleted or destroyed and in certain circumstances restrict processing
- Claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the data protection regulations
- In the limited circumstances where you have provided your consent to the collection, processing and transfer of your personal information for a specific purpose, you have the right to withdraw your consent for that specific processing at any time. We will no longer process your information for the purpose or purposes you originally agreed to, unless we have another legitimate basis for doing so in law

12.2 To exercise any of these rights, please contact our Data Protection Officer, Jo Hudson on 01226 282721

13. Complaints

13.1 We take any complaints about our collection and use of personal information very seriously.

13.2 If you think that our collection or use of personal information is unfair, misleading or inappropriate or have any other concern about our data processing, please raise this with us in the first instance.

13.3 To make a complaint, please contact our Data Protection Officer, Jo Hudson – 01226 282721.

13.4 Alternatively you can make a complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office as follows:

- Report a concern online at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>
- Call 0303 123 1113
- Write to: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF
